A message of Wisdom

To increase your knowledge...

THTWB would like for you to focus on Determination:

To be an effective leader of a non-profit organization is a special 'niche' within leadership. Charity, Faith and Services are the three key pillars of THTWB. As an organization, THTWB will always keep in mind the humble beginnings of its inception. Looking back over this decade and reflecting over the years, it has been pure determination to keep this non-profit flourishing in the larger system of 'games and chances.' It is only through determination that the organization has continued to succeed by adhering to the three pillars that the organization was built upon.

Determination is a defining factor for the future for each of us and when properly administered, it results in a 'Win, Win' status.
