

"A 501 C 3 non-profit social service organization; established on charity, faith and service..."

THTWB, has been serving low to moderate income individuals of Greater Cuyahoga County in need of effective human services such as food, clothing, computer training, HIV/AIDS education, testing and referral along with private consultation to other organizations as well as help since 2002.

Donations (monetary) would be greatly appreciated. We can then continue to extend our services to other organizations, churches and communities.

If you would like to help THTWB with funding for the much needed services, please feel free to send to:
