A message of Wisdom

To increase your knowledge...

THTWB would like for you to focus on this message:

This message of Wisdom centers on our universe and the role we have as caretakers. It's always an honor and a privilege to help serve and love someone. We at THTWB, have always held high our goal of charity, faith and service. As we continue to strive for excellence, we know that financial resources have a viable role in our success. We trust that our dedication has given us the foundation that will make us a multi-million dollar social service organization in the near future and the foundation of charity, faith and service is the key. As always, we welcome your financial donations.

Giving Thanks...

This issue is to give thanks to the many organizations that have assisted THTWB in serving individuals of various needs. These organizations should be recognized as ambassadors and humanitarians based on their dedication to "sustainability" for THTWB and the constituents of which THTWB serves. THTWB is strategically planning to one day in the future provide an annual event that will recognize the dedication of these individuals and organizations and their appreciation of the work done by THTWB. Therefore, any organization or individual reading this newsletter who has assisted THTWB in any way, you are one of the stars we are referring to and THTWB would like to say THANKS for all you do as "WE" continue to "WIN, WIN!"

THTWB Executive Director's snapshot:

A question posed to the Executive Director by the board was, "Is there anyone else you would like to thank at this time?" Answer: "As an Executive Director, I would like to give thanks to the special volunteers that have helped THTWB with picking up merchandise that includes food and clothing to be distributed to the many people in need. Without your help the effort of trying to meet the needs of individuals would be impossible. Thank you for your 'self-less-ness' and your love for others."
